HANNAH (Bolton) SHENTON
1821-1905

---

I extend my thanks to all, who through their cooperation, kindness and patience have helped in gathering the data contained in this genealogy. Without their help it would have been impossible. I hope that few errors have been made, but I am aware that some may have crept in. The history of two of the families is incomplete, due to lost records. I am continuing the search, however, and will not be satisfied until more information can be found. It has been a pleasant task and the meeting with relatives, if only through the mails, has been very rewarding to me.—S.

THE FAMILY OF EMMA SHENTON (1840-1919)
B—EMMA SHENTON

The "Family Register" in my grandfather's family Bible and in his handwriting lists the date of Emma Shenton's birth as Jan. 18, 1840. Opposite in, in my handwriting, is the date of her death, Sept. 5, 1919. Other facts about her life and family are scant. She married Richard Jones on July 7, 1859, and was the mother of five children, only one, a daughter Ella, reached maturity. A clipping from a Golden, Colo., newspaper states that this daughter was born in England Feb. 21, 1872 and died in Golden Sept. 5, 1891. The only other mention of children is a death notice for Laura Shenton, "beloved child of Richard and Emma Jones of Butt Lane, Talke, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire on Feb, 26, 1869, aged 3 years."

I have two Christmas greeting cards, one dated in 1909, the other in 1911. In both her name is given as Mrs. Henry Jones, and her address as 75 Newcastle Road, Talke, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffordshire. It has been my understanding that she returned to England after the death of her husband Richard Jones in 1897 and married his brother, Henry Jones.

Aunt Emma Shenton Jones was one of the finest women who ever lived. She visited at our home several times when I was a child and her wholesome personality made an impression on me that has never left me. Her sympathetic kindness to me at the time of my mother's death (I was only 14 years old then and she happened to be visiting at our home) will never be forgotten.—S.

THE FAMILY OF ANN SHENTON (1854-1887)

H—ANN SHENTON

Born Feb. 16, 1854, Staffordshire, England

Married Light

Died Apr. 20, 1887

Efforts to gather data on the family of Ann Shenton Light have not been successful. Neil A. Light, who lives in Denver, Colo., is probably a grandson. He reports that the family records were destroyed in a fire when his father was a small boy. Information from other sources state that Ann Shenton and her husband died of typhoid fever, leaving three small children.
